

I want to show my support for VRS interoperability. We deserve the right to choose the VRS provider of our choice. We should be allowed the equivalence of making calls as if it were a regular phone just like our hearing counterparts. Limited access to any VRS provider violates the equal access and functional equivalence to anyone who uses VRS.

Tom Galey